LAKE ROLAND

Explore this more than 500-acre park, an area leased to Baltimore County, which offers a variety of outdoor activities and programs. Take advantage of waterfront pastimes, such as canoeing or kayaking. Visit the Lake Roland Nature Center, which offers year-round educational courses and events. The public is invited to participate in programs such as Art on the Trail, Friday Strolls, Nature Scouts and Yoga in the Park. Hands-on environmental learning programs are available for school groups or scout troops. Trails are available for hiking, biking, running or walking. Guests will also find the charming Acorn Hill, a children's natural play area overlooking the lake; Paw Point Dog Park; and the Serpentine Barrens, an ecosystem teeming with rare plant life. 1000 Lakeside Drive, Baltimore, Maryland, LakeRoland.org
