

Epworth League Rally.

There will be an Epworth League rally of the chapters of Orangeville, Highlandtown, Patapsco and Sparrows Point at Sparrows Point Methodist Episcopal Church next Thursday. At the afternoon session Rev. H. S. France, presiding elder of the East Baltimore district, will conduct the opening exercises. The welcome will be delivered by Rev. J. H. Jeffries and the response by Rev. J. R. Edwards. The committee on county work is composed of Revs. J. R. Edwards, W. C. Babcock and C. T. Weede.

Teachers' Institutes.

The next of the series of local teachers' institutes will be held today in the Parkton schoolhouse and will be attended by teachers of the Fifth, Sixth and Seventh districts. The institute will be in charge of Examiner A. S. Cook. On Wednesday there will be an institute at Cockeysville, attended by teachers of the Eighth and Ninth districts. The institute announced to be held at Fork on Thursday next has been postponed until the first week in December.

Says Shooting Was Accidental.

Thomas Jackson, colored, was taken to the county jail at Towson Saturday, on a commitment from Justice Orrick, of Glynndon, charging him with shooting Andrew Moneymus, colored, in the leg. The wounded man was sent to a hospital, where it was said that the injured limb may have to be amputated. The shooting occurred at Reisterstown. Jackson says the shooting was the result of accident and that Moneymus did not want him arrested.

Suburban Personals.

Beale R. Howard and family, of Washington, who spent the summer at their handsome place near Monkton, have returned to their home at the capital.

William C. Rigor, station agent and postmaster at Hollins Station, Northern Central railway, is visiting his family in Pennsylvania, and Thomas F. Logan is acting temporarily as his substitute.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winstanley, who were recently married, have returned from their wedding trip and are the guests for a few days of Mrs. Mary E. Winstanley, mother of the groom, at Monkton. They will live in Baltimore.

Joseph Trainor, a former well-known school teacher in the county, but who has been connected with the Treasury Department, Washington, has been spending several weeks at his home, in Woodensburg, Fourth district, and will return to Washington after voting on Tuesday.