

G. G. MOORE'S SERVICE SET

Eastern Shore Insurance Agent Died Saturday

Federalburg, Md., Oct. 20 [Special]—Services for G. Glenwood Moore, an insurance agent in Dorchester and Caroline counties, will be held at 2 P.M. Tuesday at the Framptom funeral establishment here.

Mr. Moore, who was 48, died last night at the Easton memorial Hospital.

Served In Navy

He had been a People's Life Insurance Company agent for the past 25 years. His home was in Hurlock, Md.

Born in Dorchester county, he was the son of Oliver Moore and the late Mrs. Martha H. Moore. After attending schools in Dorchester county, he entered the Navy and served during World War II. Among the campaigns he participated in was the invasion of Normandy on D-Day.

Mr. Moore is survived by his wife, Mrs. Janice Wheatley Moore, and his children, Mrs. Dal Regan, of Federalburg, Ronald S. Moore and four grandchildren. His father and a sister, Mrs. Kemp Bramble, also survive.

Burial will be in Dorchester Memorial Park, Cambridge.

Howard M. Bryan, Jr.

Services for Howard M. Bryan, Jr., caretaker at the Robert E. Lee Memorial Park for about fifteen years, will be held at 2 P.M. Wednesday at the Burgee funeral establishment, 3631 Falls road.

Mr. Bryan, who was 60, died Saturday at work.

A native and lifetime resident of the Baltimore area, his home was at 6016 Altamont place.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Glennie B. Bryan, two sons, Howard M. Bryan 3d, and Wallace W. Bryan, and a daughter, Miss Catheryn Bryan.

Burial will be in the Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens.