

be held 10 o'clock tomorrow at his home. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Pinchbeck, pastor of the Seventh Baptist Church, and burial will be in Greenmount Cemetery.

Obituary

JOHN J. KELLY.

Stricken with acute indigestion, John J. Kelly, 1104 East Preston street, for many years a city employe, died yesterday on his sixtieth birthday. He was taken sick shortly before noon at the office of the Highway Engineer, where he worked as a messenger, and died at 2 P. M. Mr. Kelly was born in Baltimore and was a brother-in-law of the late Peter J. Campbell. He was a member of St. Ignatius' Catholic Church, the Catholic Benevolent Legion and the League of the Sacred Heart. He belonged to the City Fire Department for 30 years and became a messenger at the City Hall 10 years ago. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary E. Kelly; four daughters, the Misses Virgie E., Katherine L., Marie E. and Helen H. Kelly; two sons, James W. and Francis T. Kelly, and three brothers. The funeral will be held from St. Ignatius' Church Saturday morning, and burial will be in New Cathedral Cemetery.

THOMAS T. BURGAN.

Following two weeks' illness from a nervous disease, Thomas T. Burgan, 86 years old, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah E. Davis, 416 North Wolfe street. Mr. Burgan, who was formerly in the cigar business at Fayette and Chapel streets, was a lifelong Democrat and reader of THE SUN. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Surviving are his daughter, a son, Edward J. Burgan; 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held from the home Friday afternoon and burial will be in Baltimore Cemetery.

JOHN BOONE.

John Boone, 84 years old, died yesterday at the home of his son, James W. Boone, superintendent of Clifton Park. Funeral services will be held there tomorrow afternoon. Burial will be in Greenmount Cemetery. Mr. Boone was born in Baltimore county. He was caretaker at Lake Roland from the time when the lake was first surveyed, before the Civil War, until the position was abolished a few years ago. Mr. Boone was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Surviving are his son; a daughter, Mrs. Georgiana Rigor; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

BEVERLY T. SENER.

Following a lingering illness, Beverley T. Sener died yesterday at his home, 309 East Thirty-first street. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Susie H. Sener; a son, Joseph W. Sener, and a daughter, Mrs. John W. Cryer. The funeral will